Newsletter of the National Association for Chicano Studies
Southwest Hispanic Research Institute, The University of New Mexico

1990 CONFERENCE SITE: NEW MEXICO

The next National Association for Chicano Studies Annual Conference (NACS 18) will be hosted by the University of New Mexico from March 29 to March 31, 1990. The conference will be held at the Sheraton Old Town Inn in Albuquerque. Provisions will be made for conference participants to visit the UNM campus. The administration of the University of New Mexico has pledged to support the hiring of minorities and women and, given UNM's demographic and cultural surroundings, Chicanos and Chicanas are high on the recruitment list. While attending the national conference you are invited to visit appropriate departments at UNM or to inquire with the Southwest Hispanic Research Institute should you consider UNM an institution for a possible faculty position.

CONFERENCE THEME

The theme for the 1990 conference is "Tradition and Change: Culture and Politics in the Chicano Community." The theme is intended to encompass an important duality among Chicanos and Chicanas, one that both values positive aspects of Mexican culture, such as language and traditional homeland, and also recognizes the need for social dignity, equality, justice and empowerment. The inter-relationship and, often, the tension among tradition and change, culture and politics, is perhaps most keenly felt by us as NACS members. It is a duality that arises in myriad ways. We invite you to consider incorporating the theme in your participation at the conference in either papers, workshops, or exhibitions.

CALL FOR PAPERS

The deadline for submission of abstracts and panel proposals is January 15, 1990. The Program Committee urges you to submit already completed panel and roundtable proposals. Abstracts and proposals that address the conference theme directly are especially welcome. The panel and individual proposal forms are included in the Call for Papers. Please note that they are back to back. Send your completed forms to:

Dr. David Maciel, Chair
NACS 18 Program Committee
Southwest Hispanic Research Institute
The University of New Mexico
Albuquerque, NM 87131

(505) 277-2965

Proposals for panels, workshops and roundtables should provide a brief description of the proposed topic, the names and affiliations of the participants, and the title of the individual presentations. Proposals for papers should provide a tentative title, and a brief description and/or outline of the essay. Also, please indicate how your proposal is in keeping with the conference theme, if applicable.

All presenters must be members of NACS and must register for the conference. Because home regions and Focos receive rebates from members who pay their annual membership dues before the conference, you are encouraged to pre-register and help subsidize your Foco's costs.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS

The Sheraton Hotel is located in historic Old Town, the site of original settlement in Albuquerque. The site is within a stone's throw of both the Albuquerque Museum and the Natural History Museum. The Sheraton's special room rates for the NACS Conference are $62 single, $68 double, and $95 suite. Please add an additional $10 for each extra person sharing a room. It is best to make reservations early as these rates are in effect until March 7, 1990, after which only regular reservations are possible according to availability. NACS receives a special rate if it meets a contractual minimum, so please plan on staying at the Sheraton to insure that we meet this minimum. For more information on accommodations contact:

SPECIAL EVENTS AT NACS 18

We hope that you will plan to stay in Albuquerque through Sunday, April 1. Air fares are lower if you stay over a Saturday night, and we have some special events planned for you.

■ Cuentos Nuevomexicanos. Thursday night La Compañía will be presenting a series of adapted cuentos from the oral tradition.

➤ On Saturday afternoon a Lowrider Car Show will be held in the parking lot of the Sheraton.

➤ Throughout the afternoon on Saturday there will be a special celebration: a MATANZA DE MARRANOS. Amelia and Profirio Silva (and family) of Belen, New Mexico will be preparing a special meal for Saturday night. The MATANZA, a traditional barbacoa Nuevomexicana (estilo Belen), will be prepared at the Sheraton. Dinner, which will include higado con cebollas (y claro, tortillas), carne con chile caribe, frijoles con chile colorado y, (especialidad de la casa) chicarrones especiales will be prepared all afternoon so you are invited to help with the preparations, observe y, claro, comer. You don't want to miss this.

➤ Topping off the conference will be a Gran Baile, con Al Hurricane y Las Amigas.

➤ For those of you who would like to travel to Santa Fe and the Santuario de Chimayó on Sunday or who would like to visit the mesa top pueblo of Acoma, we are arranging special tours.

Stay over Saturday night!

COMMEMORATIVE PORTRAIT OF PATROCINIO BARELA

NACS 18 is proud to announce the availability of the 1990 conference poster. Santa Fe artist Edward Gonzales painted the commemorative portrait of Patrocinio Barela to mark the twenty-fifth year of the sculptor's death, to generate scholarly interest and a wider public appreciation for Barela's art. Patrocinio Barela (1900? - 1964) was born in Arizona and grew up in Taos, New Mexico, where he became the outstanding wood sculptor of his time. An extraordinarily gifted artist, Barela was a critically important forerunner of contemporary Chicano artists who create their own inner visions of the world. The Commemorative Portrait of Patrocinio Barela is available at the special conference price of $20.00. The poster may be ordered by contacting Helen M. Tafoya-Barraza at (505) 277-2965 or by checking the appropriate box on the NACS 18 registration form.

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENT PARTICIPATION IN NACS

A subcommittee of undergraduate students is developing a proposal for increasing student participation in both the NACS National Conference and in the activities of the local Focos. Since most of the students are not members of the Association and are therefore not on the mailing list for the newsletter, we are requesting that you circulate this call for student contacts and student papers to the appropriate organizations on your campus. Those wishing to participate in the student plenary, to present papers, or to suggest ideas for workshops, etc., should contact the chair of the subcommittee: Joann Silva (505) 242-7012 or (505) 277-5535. Correspondence can be addressed to her at the Southwest Hispanic Research Institute address (see "Call for Papers").

NOMINATION FOR NACS SCHOLAR

Nominations are being accepted for the NACS Scholar. The NACS Scholar should be an individual who has made a significant contribution to Chicano studies. According to the NACS bylaws, the specific criteria to be used in recognizing a scholar are as follows:

1. a scholar's personal history of involvement in the development of Chicano Studies literature or as a discipline; and
2. his/her significant contributions to scholarly research and writing on the Mexican population in the United States.

Nominations should include an explanation for the appropriateness of such recognition. The person/s selected as the NACS Scholar will be recognized at the 1990 NACS Conference in Albuquerque, New Mexico in March. Nominations should be sent no later than January 15, 1990.

STUDENT PAPER COMPETITION

FREDERICK CERVANTES STUDENT PREMIO COMPETITION

The National Association for Chicano Studies announces its annual student paper competition. A three hundred and fifty dollar prize plus consideration for publication in the annual conference proceedings is awarded both to the best graduate paper and to the best undergraduate paper.

Competition Requirements

1. Students must be NACS members. To join the association write to Ramón Chacón, History Department, Santa Clara University, Santa Clara, CA 95053 or fill out the appropriate section on the NACS 18 registration and Membership form.
2. All papers must be on a Chicano Studies topic, fully referenced, typed, and double-spaced.
3. Three copies of each paper are required.
4. Each paper should have a title page with full name, address, institutional affiliation, and telephone number. Each paper should be clearly marked GRADUATE or UNDERGRADUATE. Lack of clear identification of competition category will disqualify the paper from the competition.

5. The title should appear on the title page and again on the first page of the paper. The author's name should not be repeated on the first page.

6. Papers must be postmarked no later than February 1, 1990. Late papers will be returned to sender.

7. Students are encouraged to present their papers at the annual conference.

8. Send three copies to:

Professor Rubén Martínez
Department of Sociology
University of Colorado, Colo. Springs
Colorado Springs, CO 80933
(719) 593-3169

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA AT RIVERSIDE

The 1991 Conference (NACS IXX) will be hosted by the University of California at Riverside. Riverside is also the current candidate for the NACS Central Office. The NACS National Coordinating Committee has designated a subcommittee to serve as a site evaluation team. The visit will take place on December 1, 1989. The subcommittee will make a recommendation to the general membership at the Albuquerque conference. A vote on the site will then take place on whether or not to place the Central Office at Riverside.

ELECTIONS FOR NATIONAL COORDINATING COMMITTEE

All NACS members are reminded that there will be four vacancies on the National Coordinating Committee (NCC) in 1990. The following NACS Regions must elect new representatives at the NACS Conference in Albuquerque during their Foco meetings (scheduled for Friday afternoon, March 30, 1990): Colorado, Northern California, Midwest and Rocky Mountain. The term of office is two years. For more information contact: Devon Peña, General Coordinator (see previous announcement).

EDITORIAL COMMITTEE NOMINATIONS

Nominations are being solicited to fill two positions on the NACS editorial committee. The editorial committee is responsible for soliciting, reviewing, and selecting papers presented at the national conference for inclusion in the NACS proceedings. Specific obligations are as follows:

1. Members are elected by the general NACS membership and serve two year terms.

2. A member must be prepared to pay for half of the transportation cost to attend one meeting of the committee.

3. Members will be required to read, critique and edit manuscripts, write introductory essays, proofread galleys, and work closely with the authors.

4. A member must have access to secretarial assistance and be able to make long distance calls and pay for mail outs.

5. The review process requires at least 60 hours of work and lasts from the conclusion of the annual conference until the completed manuscripts are sent to the press.

Nominations should be sent to the NACS General Coordinator no later than January 15, 1990. The selections will be made at the National Coordination Committee meeting in March, 1990 at the Albuquerque conference.

*The current editorial committee announces that Chicana Voices will be reprinted and be made available at the New Mexico conference in 1990. Also, the proceedings from the Utah and UTEP conferences shall be combined in one volume and should be available by the end of the summer.

NACS ARCHIVE

The Benson Latin American Collection has been the designated archival repository for official NACS documents. Therefore, the membership of NACS, particularly former and current coordinating committee members, are strongly urged to send copies of conference papers, abstracts, programs, posters, minutes, resolutions, committee reports, correspondence, etc. to the Benson Collection. Special attention should be paid to the period prior to 1980, as well as those papers from the past two or three meetings. Materials should be addressed as follows:

Margo Gutiérrez
Mexican American Studies Librarian
Benson Latin American Collection
SRH 1.108, UT AUSTIN
Austin, TX 78713

NACS XVII Resolutions

1. Be it resolved that NACS develop a 5 - year plan of action (1990-95) to develop a political base with NACS constituencies and that this charge be assigned to the Political Action Committee. The proposed plan of action will be presented at the 1990 NACS conference in New Mexico. Constituencies that should be considered are community, education groups, labor, business, political, immigration, and gender.

2. Whereas, NACS sees the efforts by U.S. English, English First, and other pro English Only groups as directly opposed to the best interests of the Chicano people and other minorities, and Whereas, the English only movement supporters are also in opposition to the immigration of our people to the U.S., Therefore, be it resolved that NACS takes a firm stand strongly opposed to the efforts to pass any state statutes, resolutions, amendments, or any other declaration proclaiming English the official language of any state, and further

Be it also resolved that NACS likewise as strongly oppose the efforts to pass an amendment to the U.S. Constitution proclaiming English the official language of the U.S.

3. Resolved that NACS formulate and sell its members a MEMBERSHIP DIRECTORY which is to be revised on a yearly basis. This directory will be generated through the form for registration of members to indicate: 1. release rights (authorizing the inclusion of the member in the directory) and 2. providing information on the areas of expertise.

4. Since there are caucuses that wish to apply for status as Standing Committees of NACS, resolved that the Association take no action against the current practice of caucuses arranging plenaries with particular conference site committees.

5. Whereas, the Decennial Census of Population and Housing is mandated by the U.S. Constitution to determine representation in the U.S. House of Representatives. Similarly, census data are used to determine the allocation of billions of dollars to federal, state, and local businesses, planning agencies, academics, and religious groups use census data for program planning, grants, research, fund raising, and advocacy, and

Whereas, Title 13 of the United States Civil Code prevents the Bureau of the Census from releasing any personal information collected, and

Whereas, the 1990 census will create over 400,000 new temporary job opportunities which require persons with a good work ethic and determination.

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that NACS endorses the Bureau of the Census's goal of a complete and accurate enumeration in the 1990 census, especially in those areas of the country where minorities and the poor have been undercounted, and

Be it therefore resolved, that the NACS will use its influence and position to encourage each of its regions to actively support the Bureau of the Census in informing the public of the importance of complete and accurate census. Each region is asked to cooperate fully with the Census Awareness and Products Program and we strongly recommend that all regions establish committees to work with the Complete Count Programs when formed in their localities, and

Be it further resolved, that the members of NACS assist in the recruitment program of the Bureau of the Census by referring good potential candidates for employment for the temporary jobs that will be available throughout the nation, and

Be it finally resolved, that this endorsement be publicized through the local and national media and in Noticias de NACS, the official news organ of this organization.

6. Whereas, the National Association for Chicano Studies has supported and endorsed the coordination of a Student Plenary session at their national conference, and

Whereas, the structure of NACS is such that regional representation is divided into seven regions,

Be it therefore resolved, that regional representation will be recognized at future NACS conferences when there will be a Student Plenary session taking place, Further let it be resolved, that a pre-conference student networking process be established to organize the Student Plenary session with the explicit recommendation that the regional Representatives from NACS undertake the responsibility for dissemination of any information.

7. Chicana Caucus Resolutions:

1. Equal representation of women on the site committee shall be ensured. Women who have demonstrated an interest in women's issues shall be recruited. The Chicana Caucus regional representative(s) at which the conference is being held shall be a member of the site committee.

2. The Chicana Caucus site representatives shall consult on an ongoing basis with the Chicana Caucus steering committee to ensure that Chicana needs and concerns are met.

3. A two-hour Chicana Caucus meeting shall be scheduled when there are no other conflicting activities. The meeting time should be set to maximize women's participation (i.e. it should be scheduled for the second day of the conference).

4. Complimentary on-site childcare shall be provided for the duration of the conference (for all scheduled events).

5. A Chicana Caucus plenary session shall be held at each conference. The plenary session will be planned by women site committee members and Chicana Caucus representatives and will focus on gender issues.

6. All NACS plenary sessions shall consist of 50% or more women.

7. Half of the designated cultural events shall reflect the talents of women.

8. The site committee shall ensure that no exhibitor displays materials demeaning or exploiting women.

9. The site committee shall pay attention to NACS written materials to avoid sexist language. Special attention shall be taken to distinguish between "Chicanas," and "Chicanos," and "Latinas," and "Latinos."

8. PAC RESOLUTIONS

1. Be it resolved, that the NACS regions set up focused groups on specific topics (e.g. English Only, immigration, Gender Issues, etc.). Based on interests of the region;

2. Be it resolved, that the Political Action Committee be instituted as a Standing Committee of the Association;

3. Be it resolved, that the work taken up by the regional focus groups, which links community and research scholars, be published and disseminated.
