Dear Presenter/Panel Organizer:

On behalf of the Program Committee, I am pleased to inform you that your paper or panel has been selected for presentation at the 51st annual meetings of the National Association for Chicana and Chicano Studies that will take place in Denver, CO at the DoubleTree Hilton Hotel.

The following provides important information; please review carefully as deadlines are fast approaching. Additional details are/will also be available at <http://www.naccs.org/naccs/Presenter.asp>.

Please review the following deadlines as they are quickly approaching:

Presentation Assignment: Your assignment was listed, along with your panel information, in the email sent on 1/7. Presentations begin on March 30th (Thursday) and end on April 1st (Saturday). Panels are organized in 70-minute blocks. Individual presentations should not exceed 15 minutes.

Membership & Registration: In accordance with our policy, all presenters must be members and register to participate in the NACCS annual meetings. We ask that you please register by February 28, 2023. If you are a panel organizer and primary contact, please follow up your panelists.

Corrections/edits: Any corrections or additions to your presentation/panel must be received by Sunday, February 1, 2023, email naccs@naccs.org. Please use the panel ID number listed in the 1/7 email.

Hotel: Hotel rooms are limited. To receive the conference rate and assure a guest room make reservations ASAP but no later than March 1, 2023 to guarantee a room block. Hotel details are available online.

AV: Details on AV are available at the NACCS Annual Meeting website.

Student Housing Fellowship: Student presenters, a support (non-monetary) is available for qualifying participants to stay at the conference hotel. Go to <http://www.naccs.org/Fellowship> for information. You must be a member of NACCS to be considered for this support.

Again, congratulations on being selected to present at NACCS. All conference information is available at <http://www.NACCS.org>. Questions please contact kathy@naccs.org (Kathryn Blackmer).

Cordially,

Deena J. González, Ph.D.
